Mr. George W. Wilson

Dear Mr. Wilson:

I appreciate your invitation to address the American Newspaper Publishers Association on April 26th. Unfortunately, I am unavailable on the 26th because of a previous commitment which I cannot rearrange. However, I would certainly have enjoyed speaking with your members and I appreciate your asking me to join you in such a beautiful place as Honolulu. Please give my regards to all your association members.

Best wishes for a successful convention.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

Bill -

In the outgoing, why can't we just say he already has too many speech commitments and would be unable to accept rather than using the meeting with a member of Congress. This doesn't sound like much of a reason for not accepting a speech commitment.

I'm open to any thoughts on the reason for this line of thinking.

JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
American Newspaper Publishers Association
Honolulu, Hawaii
26 April 1988

Chairman of the American Newspaper Publishers Association (ANPA), George W. Wilson, has invited you to be the keynote speaker at the luncheon on Tuesday, 26 April. You could expect an audience of 3,000 newspaper executives. ANPA has also invited representatives from Australia, Taiwan, The People's Republic of China, the Soviet Union and Japan to speak at the convention during their three-day program. You were invited last September and then in March to address the ANPA Government Affairs Committee in Washington, but both times you were scheduled to be overseas.

You already have five speaking engagements in the next three weeks including an address for Law Day in St. Louis on 29 April. You also have a breakfast scheduled with Senator Malcolm Wallop on the 26th. I recommend that you decline this invitation and I have attached a letter of regret for your signature.

The Honorable William H. Webster

Dear Judge Webster:

We are delighted that you are interested in joining us at our Annual Convention in Honolulu, April 24-27. This is the global event of the year for the newspaper business -- about 3,000 newspaper executives will attend.

Some of last year's program participants included: President Reagan; First Lady Nancy Reagan; President Carter; Senators Dole, Hart and Hatch; Representatives Fascell and Frank; Cyrus Vance; Abraham Sofaer; William French Smith; Stansfield Turner and Jean J. Kirkpatrick.

We would be honored if you would accept our invitation to keynote our Luncheon on Tuesday, April 26. Program plans call for presentations by the most senior representatives of government and commerce from Australia; Taiwan, The People's Republic of China, The Soviet Union and Japan.

I have enclosed our new brochure that will give you background on ANPA as well as a copy of the June 1987 issue of presstime, the ANPA journal, which features our 100th Anniversary Convention in New York City. In addition, I have enclosed a copy of our Program in Brief which gives an overview of the entire 1988 Convention.

We hope you can work this invitation into your schedule.

Sincerely yours,

George W. Wilson
